Sorted by total dividends paid over ten years. Invest $10,000 in each stock in 'The List' on January 1, 2013 and you can see how much you would have received in total dividends over the past decade. The average is a little over 45% of your initial investment ($4,539). Starting yield (YLD '13) has a big impact on dividends paid in the first ten years but some of our low yield high growth stocks are gaining fast. It will be interesting to run this report in another ten years time to see
